Christian Education Thought For The Week

From I Thessalonians chapter 5 the apostle Paul reminds us of the coming day when God will hold all people accountable for their attitudes and actions. Since this time will come unexpectedly, we all need to stay alert and ready. This is especially important for those of us who tend to procrastinate. God wants us to act immediately whenever we see sin in our lives. He does not want us to delay confessing our sins or forgiving others. When God shows us where we need to change, He also offers us the power and ability to change.
